Living with Hegel

By Terry Pinkard

I. Biography of Hegel

First a school teacher, then a university professor in libraries and newspapers being followed and finally a man who is speculative in his unemployment and is following plants as in fact conceptualism.

II. Developing a Life following Hegel

In fact then we follow Hegel, and repeat his life in philosophy – it means one is being, essential and then conceptual each day or period.

III. Hegel’s Ladder

From the concrete to the abstract – which becomes a colourful life to grey dullness – when will we be grey studied as subject matter.
